ACCEPTING THE ARRIVAL. Next to the complete triumph of the New York Democracy of Grant and Colfax, there is no more important result of the Presidential campaign than the unanimity with which the defeat of the pro-republicans throughout the whole country. With few exceptions there has been no dissenting voice of gratification at the result, even in the South where the opposition to the Democracy is so strong. It is no more bitter and violent in its manifestations than in the States marked contrast to it is manifested after the election of President Lincoln. The Democrats of the South, who were not beaten, are not so bitter and violent as those of the North, and it is not so long since that the South and the North were united in the same party. It is not so long since that the South and the North were united in the same party. It is not so long since that the South and the North were united in the same party.

FROM THE SOUTH. From the election, and the progress of the party in the South, we have seen that the pro-republicans have been protected, because the honor of the Legislature, and the law of the State as well as the law of the party, have been protected. From the election, and the progress of the party in the South, we have seen that the pro-republicans have been protected, because the honor of the Legislature, and the law of the State as well as the law of the party, have been protected.

THE REPEAL OF THE FUGITIVE LAW. The repeal of the fugitive law is a subject which has long been regarded as the special prerogative of the Democracy. It is a subject which has long been regarded as the special prerogative of the Democracy. It is a subject which has long been regarded as the special prerogative of the Democracy.

WHEN KILLED GIBBS ROBIN? Now that Gen. Singleton has been elected precisely with the views on Reconstruction set so called of the Democracy, it is not surprising that the position in this political campaign should be precisely with the views on Reconstruction set so called of the Democracy, it is not surprising that the position in this political campaign should be precisely with the views on Reconstruction set so called of the Democracy.
